Canadian Students under 19 years old who don't have a local Custodian/Guardian

Age of Majority for British Columbia is 19 years old; anyone younger is considered a minor. There needs to be a local custodian available in case of emergency. We cannot legally place a minor in homestay without a Guardian/Custodian. For long term students this would mean granting a temporary guardian/custodian during their stay (You can have a relative or friend of the family perform this function if they are over the age of 25 and live in the Vancouver area or LVH Provides this service for the following fees:$220 custodianship documents, $500 emergency deposit, $150+GST per month for custodianship monitoring fees).

However in short term homestay situations where parents are within moderate traveling distance (couple hours by car or plane) in the event of an emergency we would be willing to act as a proxy until you could arrive. The LVH proxy will not have any decision making abilities in the event of an emergency, but they would be physically available to bring the student to a doctor/hospital/police in the event of an emergency.

This $150+GST per month monitoring services grants a 24/7 emergency contact number and an adult who will stay with the student until the parents are able to arrive.
